PROSPECTUS

2018 - 2019

HISTORY

St. Agnes College, Mangaluru, Karnataka is one of the leading First Grade Colleges for women in South India. It is a Catholic minority institution founded by Mother Mary Aloysia A.C. in 1921, and managed by the Sisters of the Apostolic Carmel. Though it was founded primarily for the education of Catholic women, it has reached out to all sections of women in society. Over the years, it has grown steadily in strength and infrastructure and has withstood the vicissitudes of time and lived up to the challenges posed by changes in Higher Education. All the while the institution has kept aloft its banner declaring that 'God is our Strength'. The focus now is on student-centered learning, throwing open new avenues of study and specialization and designing challenging courses to suit the student community.

VISION OF THE COLLEGE

The Apostolic Carmel Higher Education for holistic development prepares the Agnesian students to be God centered, academically competent, responsible citizens and effective leaders committed to serve the society.

MISSION OF THE COLLEGE

St. Agnes College is committed to : Provide integral, value based and quality oriented learning experience in the classroom and beyond; Strengthen the faith life of the catholic students and keep alive the founding charism of the Apostolic Carmel; Ensure commitment and pursuit of excellence in the staff; Promote and enhance national and international goals of Higher Education; Foster and intensify the goals of national integration, unity and harmony in diversity as well as personal and national leadership for service; Develop convictions, and reinforce empowerment and action for restoration of women's dignity and human rights; Nurture eco-friendly culture with responsibility.

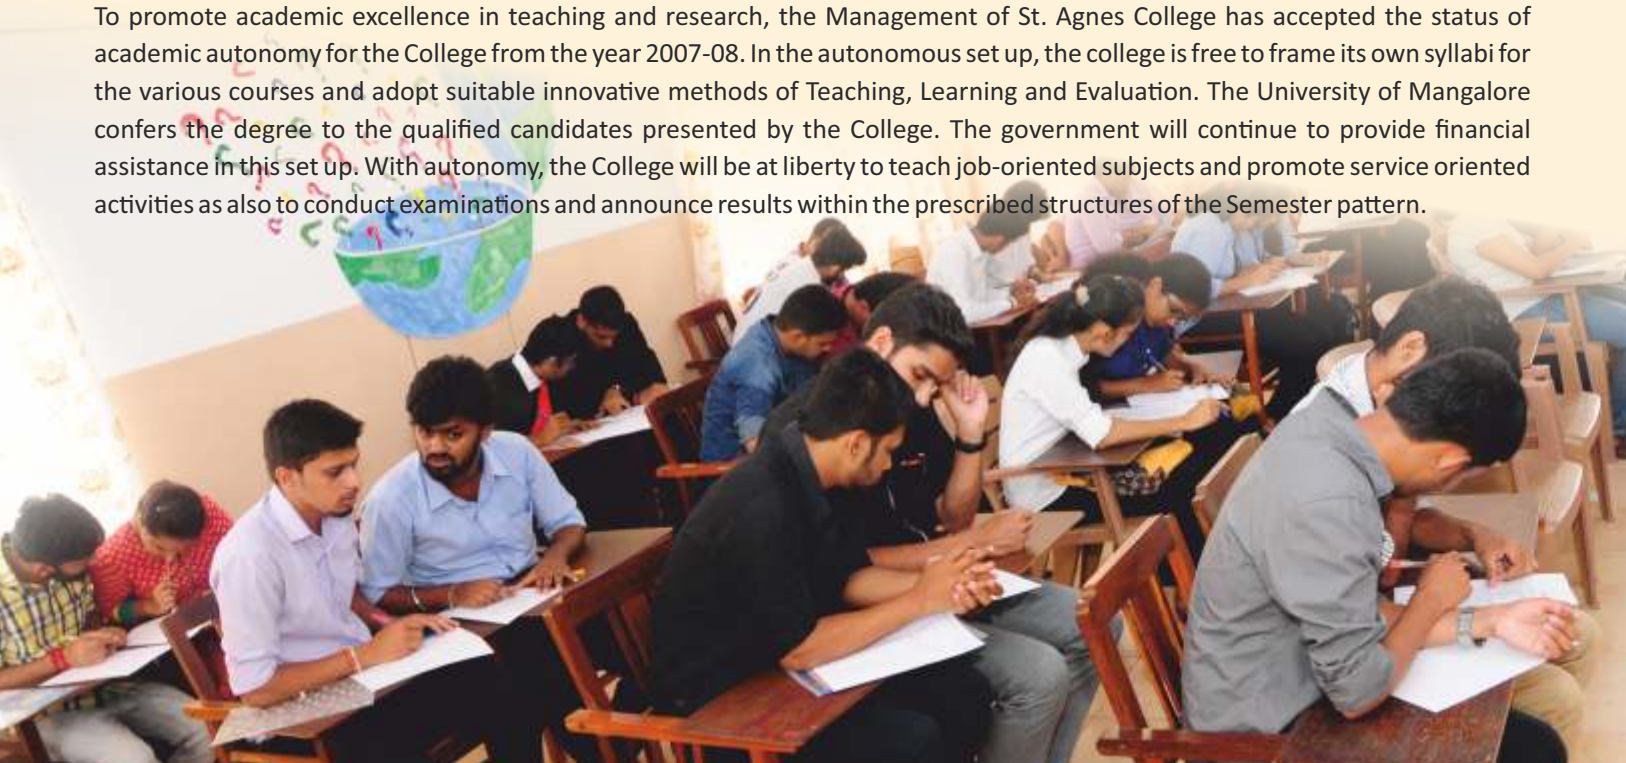

The admission is open to all at P.G. level both for boys and girls with special consideration shown to the less privileged, the scheduled castes and tribes, backward communities, the physically challenged and the Christian minority.

PATRON

St. Agnes, the Virgin-Martyr is the patroness of this Institution. Her purity of life, modesty, truthfulness and steadfastness are the virtues which our young women are called to live out in their lives.

AUTONOMY

To promote academic excellence in teaching and research, the Management of St. Agnes College has accepted the status of academic autonomy for the College from the year 2007-08. In the autonomous set up, the college is free to frame its own syllabi for the various courses and adopt suitable innovative methods of Teaching, Learning and Evaluation. The University of Mangalore confers the degree to the qualified candidates presented by the College. The government will continue to provide financial assistance in this set up. With autonomy, the College will be at liberty to teach job-oriented subjects and promote service oriented activities as also to conduct examinations and announce results within the prescribed structures of the Semester pattern.

POST GRADUATE PROGRAMMES

PG Programmes started in the year 2008 with Masters in English and Psychology and gradually reached a sense of completeness in many directions. Post-Graduation in Commerce was introduced in 2009. The Science Faculty which was newly added in 2010, started with general Chemistry and Clinical Psychology (a paramedical course affiliated to Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences). The Post-Graduation Centre has its own large building with spacious classrooms, library, research centre, laboratories and other infrastructure facilities on the beautiful campus of Mercara Hill Road, Mangaluru.

Ever since its inception the emphasis has been on critical and creative thinking in order to bring up competent, confident and committed citizens of India. The autonomy has ensured that there is a great student-teacher interaction. A constant assessment of students in semesters and semester- end examinations is a basis of award of degrees. The PG centre trains students for the all- round development of their mental, physical, aesthetic, social and spiritual growth. It aims at the integral formation of its students; helping them to become men and women with concern for others in the society.

TEACHING, LEARNING AND ASSESSMENT:

Teaching occurs via lectures, colloquium presentations, case analysis, assignments, interactive sessions, paper style presentation, project work with dissertation guides, study tours and internship programmes. All courses are 'team-taught' and are guided by academic staff in their areas of expertise. Assessment methods include written examinations, oral presentations, viva- voce and a research project.

St. Agnes Centre for Post Graduate Studies and Research is a Co-educational Institution which prepares boys & girls for P.G. courses in:

International Degree with Concordia College, USA:

Through this transfer programme students have the opportunity to study abroad. Students will study at St. Agnes College for four semesters pursuing course work in Business (Commerce) English, Social Sciences (Sociology and Psychology) and then transfer to Concordia for three semesters to obtain their American Undergraduate Degree.

Catherine of Sienna - Virtual College:

Catherine of Sienna - Virtual College in collaboration with St Agnes College (Autonomous) offers specialised internet courses on gender studies. It provides online education, interactive study and online examinations.

To Parents:

St Agnes College was established in 1920-21 with five students and has expantially grown since then. In the recent years the student strength on the campus has been around 4000 spread over PU, UG and PG. The College is geared up to celebrate its centennial year very soon. For the past 97 years, St Agnes College has been a house of faith, of fruitful study and of fellowship. It is our sincere desire that every student who enters this campus will grow into a mature woman, emotionally balanced, spiritually strengthened, intellectually competent and socially concerned.

The year 2020-21 will be a milestone in the history of St Agnes College. The college is all set to celebrate the 100 years of service to society in the field of higher education.

At St Agnes we expect a great parent/teacher collaboration for the overall development of our students. Parents and guardians are requested to co-operate with the faculty, attend parents meet/ results sessions, superwise the daily studies of their wards at home and monitor the activities of their wards before and after college hours. It is very important to check the college calendar and attendance to the class.

The College offers ample opportunities for every student to grow, develop and progress in every sphere of life. Besides the curricular and co-curricular activities, a number of additional courses, fests and competitions are organised for the holistic development of every student. Every Agnesian represents the college and will adhere to the code of ethics, dress and deportment as laid down by the college.

Parents will take note of the important parameters in the Semester pattern of academic life. The student will not be permitted to answer the End Semester Examination in the event of the following:

- Shortage of attendance*
- Absence at Mid-Sem Examinations*
- Deliberate disobedience of the rules laid down by the college.*

Let us all strive to keep up the traditions, the Vision and Mission of the College and work unitedly for a better tomorrow.

Sr. Dr. M. Jeswina A.C.
